HONEYWELL GENERATORS SALES DEALERS SIGN-UP CHECK LIST

You've promoted this exciting opportunity to your contractor base and have customers who are committed to joining your Honeywell Generators Sales Dealer Network.

What's next?

You've established that the contractor possesses the skills and commitment necessary to succeed in developing the Honeywell Generators backup generator market. That's an important first step to become an Authorized Honeywell Generators Sales Dealer.

We help them and you succeed by driving prospects to them through the Honeywell Generators Dealer Locator at www.honeywellgenerators.com. To be listed and recognized as an authorized sales dealer, a minimum purchase of one Honeywell Backup Generator is required. Once these requirements are met, sign-up is easy!

Just follow these simple steps:

- 1 – Complete the Honeywell Generator Sales Dealer Account Information Sheet
 - The form can be completed electronically or printed and filled in.
- 2 – Provide Proof of ONE Honeywell Standby Backup Generator(s) Purchase
 - Distributor Invoice you need to include when submitting
- 3 – Complete 5 online courses at The Learning Center within twelve months of Dealer sign-up.
- 4 – Fax or E-mail the form and Proof of Purchase to Honeywell Generators at:
